

HAGUE ACTIONS AS MAYOR

Jersey City Executive Calm Under Quizzing of MacKay Counsel.

HIS MEMORY UNFAILING Scoffs at Charges of Political Contributions of Police Clerk.

BENTLEY ALSO ON STAND

Insists Committee Is 'Cracking Nuts With a Steam Roller.'

The long expected climax in the Mackay legislative investigation into Hudson county affairs, the taking of the witness stand by Mayor Frank Hague in defense of his administration of Jersey City, occurred yesterday without the display of fireworks expected by both adherents and enemies of the chief executive. For two hours the Mayor answered calmly and at length all questions put to him by John A. Bernhard, chief counsel for the committee. He lost neither his temper nor his memory, as some other witnesses have done.

Campaign Contributions.

One of the points upon which Mr. Bernhard laid particular emphasis was the matter of campaign contributions. "Police Clerk Van Winkle has testified that he contributed by request $250," Mr. Bernhard said.

"Who did he contribute it to?" asked the Mayor. He went on to say that he knew Van Winkle was highly nervous and sensitive, and said he imagined the police official was referring to a contribution made to a campaign fund who was a city detective, denied using his car for personal business and asserted that the son of John D. Prince, president of the Civil Service, had not been given a job in violation of the civil service law, but had been hired on a contract. The contract, it was stated, is missing.

Use of Stolen Cars.

After Mayor Hague left the stand amid applause from his admirers John Bentley, Commissioner of Public Safety, charged the committee with prejudice, and was quizzed. In answer to a question aimed at the use of a stolen car held by the city by Police Clerk Van Winkle for his own use before he bought it, Mr. Bentley retorted:

"You and I know, as lawyers, that there isn't a lawyer in the State who shouldn't be sent to jail for embezzlement."

Mr. Bernhard did not agree with him, and Mr. Bentley added a remark that the committee was "cracking nuts with a steam roller."

Inspector Thomas Wolfe of the Police Department denied that any policeman had helped build him a summer home at Great Kills, Staten Island. Frederick Oscar Auf der Heide admitted going on a trip to Toledo two years ago "to see the fight" with other freeholders in two county automobiles with county chauffeurs driving them. He was vague in his replies to questions concerning William F. Closser, Chief of Hudson Boulevard police, owned the Boulevard police station and rented it to the county at $1,500, and said he didn't know much about why his board had permitted between $6,000 and $7,000 in repairs to be made upon the building.

Freeholder John F. Driscoll admitted having been upon the Toledo party, and named freeholders Charles Kelly and Heller as other members who saw the fight.

NO TRACES DISCOVERED OF MISSING MRS. BURR

Had Only $100 and May Have Come to New York.

Search yesterday failed to reveal any trace of Mrs. Florence W. Burr, a widow of 35 Lake Street, Danbury, Conn., who disappeared from her home April 21. Her sister, Mrs. Etta Anderson of 578 Bainbridge street, Brooklyn, said last night she thought at first Mrs. Burr had left Danbury for New York. George W. Coles of Mount Vernon, a cousin of the missing woman, joined with Mrs. Anderson and friends of the family in asking the police to search for her. Mrs. Coles said he was inclined to believe she was suffering from loss of memory.

Mrs. Burr, who owns considerable property at Danbury, was last seen at the station of the New Haven Railroad at Danbury and was carrying a suitcase. She is known to have had only $100 at the time.

DETECTIVE INDICTED FOR KILLING DRIVER

Chauffeur Was Shot While Fleeing From Arrest.

Detective Philip Curry of the special services department of the Police Department, who shot and killed Daniel Ullino, a taxicab chauffeur, in West Forty-seventh street on April 9, was indicted yesterday for manslaughter by the regular Grand Jury. The indictment was handed up to Judge John F. McIntyre in General Sessions.

Curry said that he was alerted by a woman who was a passenger in the taxicab. He placed her under arrest and ordered Ullino to drive to the West Forty-seventh street station, at the station Ullino left the driver's seat and ran. When he failed to stop at the detective's command, Curry fired.

The Grand Jury also indicted Police-Martin McMahon, 32, of the West 135th street station. He is charged with assault. The complainant against McMahon is Beulah Cooper, 25, a negro.

MRS. WERNER'S STORY GOES IN AS EVIDENCE

Wife Tells How She Aided Warmer After the Murder.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. UTRICA, April 29.—Mrs. Jennie Werner's confession regarding the killing of her husband, Henry Werner, was admitted in evidence to-day by Justice I. R. Devendorf. It conforms with the confession of Ruth R. Warner, who has been convicted of the murder. Sheriff William R. Deal of Hackensack county told how he got both confessions. He first got Mrs. Werner's confession by telling her on the morning after the murder that Warner had confessed. And when he showed her confession to Warner the latter told his story.

PUBLISHERS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO HARDING

Unanimously Adopt Resolution Expressing 'Confidence in His High Patriotism.'

With a pledge of support and cooperation to President Harding, the thirty-fifth annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, which was held at Waldorf-Astoria, yesterday and adjourned. A resolution adopted unanimously "extends felicitations to a fellow publisher who has been called to high responsibility in a time when great unity and poise as well as undeviating patriotism are called for at the seat of national government."

Responding to the President's request for aid, as conveyed in the letter addressed by him to the convention, the resolution continued: "Having every confidence in his high patriotism and lofty purposes, knowing his training in statecraft and his capacity to serve and lead a sound public sentiment, this association expresses to President Harding on behalf of the American publishers our assurances of support in the difficult problems that confront him."

T. R. Williams of the Pittsburgh Press was selected president of the association. Howard Davies of the New York Tribune was elected treasurer. Other officers re-elected were: Vice-president, Paul Patterson, Baltimore Sun; secretary, John Stewart Bryan, Richmond News-Leader; directors, Elbert H. Baker, Cleveland Plain Dealer; E. H. Butler, Buffalo News; John U. Brown, Minneapolis News; and J. E. Atkinson, Toronto Star.

The convention adopted a resolution urging the Federal Government to audit and publish the statements of expenditures whenever a doubt of their accuracy exists. Another resolution urged members of the association to oppose, as far as local conditions permit, movements to obtain acceptance of national advertising as local business at local rates.

Enough to Furnish Third of Print Paper Needed in United States.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—There is sufficient pulp wood in Alaska to furnish perpetually one-third of the print paper consumption in the United States, Col. Greely, chief forester, who recently made a survey, announced to-day.

Greely could be laid down on the Atlantic seaboard on a basis of between three and a half and four cents per pound, based on present rail freight rates, and probably one cent a pound by water, he said.

KAGY MURDER WITNESS CONVICTED OF PERJURY

Five Women Among Jurors Rendering Verdict.

CLEVELAND, April 29.—James F. McCaffery, one of twelve persons indicted for perjury in connection with testimony given at the trial of Kazy, was convicted by a jury composed of five women and seven men and sentenced to the penitentiary for from one to ten years.

McCaffery admitted on the witness stand to-day that he received $50 from Dr. A. C. McManion after testifying in behalf of his brother, William H. McCaffery, State Justice of the Municipal Court, when the latter was on trial the first time charged with the slaying of Kazy. He insisted, however, that the money was for time he had lost while in court and denied he had been reimbursed for testifying.

CUSTOMS MEN FIGHT AN ALLEGED SMUGGLER

After a fight which was witnessed by evening strollers along Fifth avenue United States Customs Agents Michael J. Collins and Cosmo Ranelli arrested last night an alleged smuggler at the western edge of Madison Square Park and seized a package containing opium valued at $40,000.

The prisoner gave the name of Samuel Anglist, 39, of 386 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. A second man, to whom he was believed Anglist intended to turn over the drug, escaped and fled across the park. Anglist put up such a battle that the agents had difficulty holding him. A taxicab was waiting and Collins and Ranelli yanked him into it and drove to the Charles street station, where they booked him on a charge of smuggling.

Under questioning it was said that Anglist admitted obtaining the drug aboard a ship. He declined to say anything about his visit to the park or the man whom the agents believe he went there to meet.

FRANCE HONORS 2 AMERICANS.

Marcel Knecht, special French representative to the United States, announced yesterday that decorations of the French Government have been awarded to Mrs. Cecilia Pelletier of Toledo, mother of Joseph C. Pelletier, supreme advocate of the Knights of Columbus, and John B. Kennedy, collaborator with Maurice Francis Egan in the presentation of the history of the Knights of Columbus, "Knights of Columbus in Peace and War."
